Pannier Market Report October/November 2019 General Update

- Footfall has been steady as we move into the festive season, Dickensian Evening is already fully booked as is our additional Sunday Christmas Market.
- One of our Lock-up units will be leaving at the end of the year, they are progressing to the main high street after 15 years in the market, this unit will be taken over by an existing Pannier Market trader.
- There have been no issues through this period in relation to licensing from a DPS perspective, our application for a variation to our current licenses has been submitted and is awaiting approval from the licensing authority.
- This year we have planned an additional Christmas Market on Sunday 22nd December, this will be in the Pannier Market itself, Bedford Square and Butchers Hall is also open for its Christmas Market.

Awesome market - 5 Stars

Great choices of things for sale. Wide range of products, great artisan stalls, best I have seen for a long time. Dogs on leads allowed, well behaved of course. Wonderful Christmas gifts both affordable prices and more expensive.

Doggy Day Out - 5 Stars

Great event - a bit cosy with all the doggies everywhere - but the Girlies coped very well...

Lots of lovely trade and Charity stalls - best of which is Friends of Galgos del Sol - the charity that rescued two of my furkids 🐾😊
